

Updates on the work of Transformational Ministries

We are so happy to share with you that beginning of January 2019, Transformational Ministries managed to support 168 children with uniforms, shoes, pullover, school materials and school bag. School academic year started on 14th January 2019. Children were so happy

We thank our partners for the good work they are doing for God's Glory

Below are photos of children studying at Susa primary school

Below are photos of children studying at Tero primary school

Updates on the work of Transformational Ministries

Photos of children studying at Nyange primary school

Photos of children studying at Kabwende primary school

Student studying at Kabara primary school

